

JUDY MCKELLAR

Director, Coaching & Facilitation

Judy McKellar retired from 38 years of service with Hydro One where she was Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer of Human Resources/Health, Safety and Environment at Hydro One Networks, a large electric utility provider that recently became a publicly traded company. As the CHRO, Judy was accountable for board matters with respect to human capital with the Corporate Governance and Human Resources Committee. Judy ensured that Hydro One attracted, engaged, and retained a high-performing workforce to deliver the company's business strategy safely and effectively. In addition to this strategic contribution, Judy oversaw the provision, through the staff of the HR and Health Safety & Environment functions, of a wide range of services to managers and, on their behalf, to employees. As a member of the Executive Leadership Team and a Direct Report to the CEO, Judy provided strategic leadership for the organization at large.

With the establishment of the Hydro One Networks IPO, Judy assisted the new CEO with establishing an entirely new executive team as well as designed and implemented commercial HR practices and compensation incentive programs.

Judy was previously a member of the Canadian Women's Foundation Economic Advisory Committee and is currently a Board member of the Set Sail Charity which assists youth in pursuing a career in the music industry. She has been recognized as one of the top 100 Most Powerful Women in Canada. Judy graduated with an honours degree in Political Science from Victoria College, University of Toronto. Judy has completed the Directors Education Program at Rotman School of Management.
