

JASON LEGERE

Director, Design & Facilitation

Jason Legere, CPHR, joined Forrest & Company in 2017 as Director, Design & Facilitation with over two decades of training design and facilitation in the fields of HR, Leadership, Coaching, Change Management, Technology and Engagement.

Jason designs and facilitates content for both the physical and virtual classrooms. He also leads Forrest's multi-day, immersive simulations in the areas of Change, Labor Negotiations, Business Acumen and Accountability Management Systems.

Additionally, he works with Leaders at all levels of organizations as a coach for skill development, unlocking potential and creating leaders of character.

Before Forrest, Jason was with Bell Aliant, the Atlantic Canadian subsidiary of Bell Canada, where he worked with all levels of Management and front line employees in the areas of HR Consulting, Coaching, Leadership Effectiveness, Employee Engagement, Change, and Customer Experience.

Frequently sought after by multiple departments for facilitation and coaching consulting, he was a founding faculty member of Bell Aliant's Leadership Fundamentals Program and later Bell Canada's Field Services People Leadership Practices Program focused on new Leaders of People.

He has been actively involved in the design and delivery of virtual online training, facilitation and coaching since 2001, pioneering "Live Online" learning for Innovatia, an Atlantic Canada based elearning firm.

In 2016, he served a term as Director of Employee Engagement for a Salesforce.com consulting firm where he led all internal HR and training initiatives while also designing and facilitating virtual training for an international client base on change, onboarding, coaching and organizational effectiveness.

Jason is a member of CPHR New Brunswick and holds both a Bachelor of Arts and Certificate in Adult Education from St. Francis Xavier University. He also holds an Instructional Design certification from Langevin Learning Services and numerous certificates in the Organizational and Technology fields.

A life-long Maritimer, Jason resides in Saint John, NB with his arch-nemesis Sharon.